

Wouldn't it be nice....

*I have given them the glory you gave me,
so they may be one as we are one.*

John 17:22

Wouldn't it be nice to live together... The Beach Boys sang the song of every heart when they released that timeless tune back in 1966. Read the lyrics for yourself, and I think you'll agree. The song is about two people who long for life together as it's meant to be, but it could easily be about the kind of life we all long for, which is unity in community.

David Miranda from sunny San Diego (Beach Boy country) will bring the message this Sunday. As a career firefighter with a son following that same path, David has spent much of his life in close community with those who must care for one another in order to care for others. That sounds like a practical description of the church to me, and it's the connection - unity in community - that David intends to make.
